

People RUINED God's very good idea.
The first people chose not to love God.
This is called sin.

And because they chose not to love God as they should, they forgot how to love each other as they should.